

Data Privacy

The Anglo-Austrian Society will only use your personal data when the law allows us to do so. Most commonly, we will use your personal information to comply with any legal obligations to which we are subject. In order to respect your privacy, we will keep your details secure. We will not share information with a third party.

We undertake to delete or to anonymise your personal data when this information is no longer required for the purpose for which it was originally collected or processed.

While you are involved with the Society, we would like to use your contact details to keep in touch about things that may matter to you. Please indicate below if you would like to hear from us. We may then send you information based on what appears to be relevant to you.

Yes, please. I would like to hear from you about things that may matter to me (tick all that apply):
