

The Anglo-Austrian Society Award for Doctoral Study

The Angela Krosik Award

The Anglo-Austrian Society proposes to make a further award for doctoral study, funded from the Angela Krosik Bequest. The award is available from the beginning of the 2025/2026 academic year. Applications can be submitted from 18th March 2025. Closing date: 30th June 2025.

Eligibility

1. The award is for a full-time student who is resident in Britain or in Austria and who is (or is applying to be) registered for doctoral study at a university in the United Kingdom. Applicants may already have begun their doctoral study or be about to do so.
2. The award is for doctoral research on a topic related in some way to Austria.
3. The award may be used for tuition fees or maintenance, or to assist with research costs (e.g. travel, cost of materials).

Value of the Award

4. The value of the award is £10,000 per annum.
5. The award will be paid in two equal instalments in each academic year, the first payable on 1st October and the second on 30th April.

Conditions

6. The award is normally held by the same full-time doctoral student for a period of three years, or until the completion of the third full year of full-time doctoral study, provided that the student's progress is deemed by The Anglo-Austrian Society to be satisfactory.
7. Renewal of the award for the second and for the third year will be conditional on written confirmation sent to the Society by the award holder's supervisor before the beginning of the following year confirming (i) that the student has made satisfactory progress with their research, and (ii) that it is anticipated that the research will be completed within the period of the award.
8. The name of the holder of the award will be published in the Society's Newsletter.
9. From the second year of registration, the awardholder will be invited to give a talk on their research to members of The Anglo-Austrian Society. The awardholder will also be expected to write an account of the research being undertaken, to be published in the Society's Newsletter.

Application process

10. An application for the award should be submitted as a pdf document and sent by email to grants@angloaustrian.org.uk using the subject line, Angela Krosik Doctoral Award.
11. The closing date for applications is 30th June 2025.
